What is Human Trafficking?

- Human trafficking is modern-day slavery and involves the use of force, fraud or coercion to obtain some type of labor or commercial sex act; or, commercial sex involving a person under 18 years of age.
- Victims are found in all legitimate and illegitimate labor sectors, including agriculture, restaurants, hotels, domestic service, and sweat shops.

Who is Affected by Human Trafficking?

There is no profile for victims of human trafficking. Anyone can be trafficked—regardless of sex, age, race, or nationality.

How Do I Identify Human Trafficking?

There are a number of indicators, that can help you identify human trafficking:

- Does the victim act fearful, anxious, depressed, submissive, tense, or nervous/paranoid?
- Does the victim defer to another person to speak for him or her?
- Does the victim show signs of physical and/or sexual abuse, physical restraint, confinement, or torture?
- Has the victim been harmed or deprived of food, water, sleep, medical care, or other life necessities?
- Does the victim have few or no personal possessions?
- Can the victim freely contact friends or family?
- Is the victim allowed to socialize or attend religious services?
- Does the victim have freedom of movement?
- Does the victim work excessively long and/or unusual hours?

What Can I Do?*

- 1. Train Yourself. Interactive online training is available at: www.dhs.gov/humantrafficking
- 2. Promote awareness. Educate members of your worshipping community and your staff on the basic signs of human trafficking and how to report it. Create awareness through posters, bulletin inserts, events, etc.
- 3. Report suspicious activity.

 Encourage members of your worshipping community to include the ICE HSI and the NHTRC tip lines in their phone contact lists and to report any suspicious activity that could

4. Partner with your community.Work locally to find opportunities to support victims (e.g. safe hotel lodging, dental, medical, or legal services).

be related to human trafficking.

- 5. Become an advocate. Encourage members of your worshipping community to distribute awareness materials.
- * Do not undertake independent investigations. Remember to be discreet to ensure your safety and the safety of victims, and contact a service provider or law enforcement, as warranted.
